Mitrovica Summer University (MSU) 2010

The 5th edition of the Mitrovica Summer University 2010 was about to take place between 16-31 July, but was cancelled because of the poor security conditions. We regret this a lot, but the safety of students, professors, volunteers and other staff is very important.

Although this is a slight set back, we want to draw attention to the coming winter University for which a new deadline is soon to be announced. Again, we will offer a wide variety of courses focusing on topics such as:

Cultural Heritage

Slavistic
Studies

Diplomacy and Communication

European
Integrations and Western Balkans

Marketing
in Digital Age

Sustainable Architecture

How to apply?

Enthusiastic students who would like to participate are invited to apply online through our online application form . Please note that the deadline for application is closed now. A new deadline is soon to be announced.

We also ask you to spread the word about MSU and invite all of your friends to apply for Mitrovica Summer University.

Pristina Summer University (PSU) 2009

The 9th edition of the PSU was organised from 13 till 31 July in Pristina. PSU offered: Modern methods of teaching and lecturing, knowledge and experience exchange between students and professors from all over the world, over 15 courses in different fields and a rich social programme. Free participation was available for some participants.
