Six hundred students attending an international camp

Tetovo – Yesterday was the official opening of the 20 days long international summer university camp held at the University of Southeast Europe.

The classes will be attended by 600 students of which 460 will be from universities across Macedonia and 140 from countries all over Europe.

The camp will mainly focus on issues such as public administration, law, economics, teacher training etc. The lecturers will be professors from the universities in Macedonia and from several European countries. The official opening of the camp yesterday was attended by the ambassador for the EU, Ervan F., Carlos Pais from OSCE, the Minister of Education Aziz Polozani and ambassadors for several countries.
